

Challenges

These solo challenges chronicle the rise of your fiefdom, from a humble settlement in untamed lands to a thriving center of learning and power. Each challenge may alter the setup, twist the rules, or even introduce new buildings as new pressures emerge and your responsibilities grow.

They are intended for experienced players, so it's recommended that you already be familiar with the core rules and game mechanics before starting.

Every challenge has its own victory conditions. Played in sequence, they form a campaign of steadily increasing difficulty, from easy to difficult. Or choose any challenge and step into that moment of your fief's story, each one can be played on its own.

I. Foundations

You found a fertile land to claim as your new fief. However, your claim won't be accepted by local tribes unless you show care and hospitality to earn the reputation of a leader.

SETUP

- No changes.

RULES

- Advanced buildings  (Townhall, University, Almshouse, Guilds) may not be built.
- If your Build pair sum would be 7-10, you must use Split instead.

VICTORY CONDITIONS

- Achieve at least 40 Reputation Points.
- Score at least 6 Cottages (12 RP).

II. Water Rights

Your people take root, and growth follows: more mouths to feed, more fields to tend. Wells and springs become gathering places. Secure them, let farms flourish, and make your fief thrive.

SETUP

- No changes.

RULES

- No changes.

VICTORY CONDITIONS

- Achieve at least 60 Reputation Points.
- Build at least 3 Springhouses.
- Springhouse Penalty is 0 RP (no forfeited plots  adjacent to any Springhouse).

III. Charters & Craft

Your people have settled, and the local tribes have accepted your presence. However, for your fief to prosper and be recognized as a true civilization, you must establish strong institutions under your patronage.

SETUP

- Start with 1 Influence .

RULES

- No changes.

VICTORY CONDITIONS

- Achieve at least 60 Reputation Points.
- Score 2 Guilds (30 RP).

IV. Social Contract

Your people have prospered, and your reputation is spreading beyond the region. However, your fief must support an influx of population by raising amenities and avoiding a vagrancy crisis.

SETUP

- Build a Guild or Townhall on the center plot (3,3). This counts as a filled plot.
- If you place a Guild, choose its Guild type now. This counts toward your maximum of 2 Guilds.

RULES

- Play 24 turns instead of 25.

VICTORY CONDITIONS

- Achieve at least 70 Reputation Points.
- Final Vagrant penalty is 0 RP (after applying Almshouse, if any).

V. Path of Enlightenment

Your fief has become the economic center of the region. Artists and scientists are flocking in, looking for philanthropists to finance their work. To become a beacon of art and science, you must invest in the necessary resources.

SETUP

- No changes.

RULES

- No changes.

VICTORY CONDITIONS

- Achieve at least 80 Reputation Points.
- Score 15 RP with the University by building 4 unique Advanced buildings (Townhall, University, Almshouse, and at least one Guild).

VI. Embers of Revolt

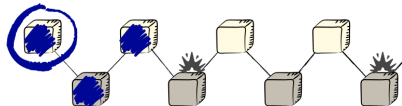

Your fief is the center of the known world. But under your rule, the local tribes have been left behind and trouble is rising in the streets. Rumors say a revolt is being prepared to topple the elite and revive the old traditions.

SETUP

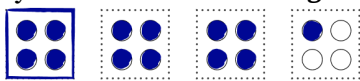

- No changes.

RULES

- The Turn track is also used for tracking Unrest (circle markers as Unrest).

- At the end of each turn, gain Unrest for each of the following conditions (max. +4 Unrest per turn):
 - ◇ +1 Unrest if you have built an Advanced building (blue icon).
 - ◇ +1 Unrest for each Influence (star icon) used for the turn.
 - ◇ +1 Unrest if you have more than 8 Vagrants.

- Every 4th Unrest (star icon) reached, Barricades are raised: immediately hatch 1 empty Population square (yellow icon).

VICTORY CONDITIONS

- Achieve at least 80 Reputation Points.

VII. Drums of War

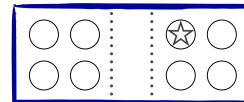

A warlord is marching on your fief. They want your land, your wealth, and your people under their rule. Rally your citizens, muster your forces, and prepare to protect your fief.

SETUP

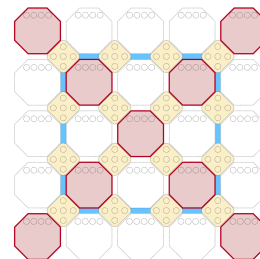

- No changes.

RULES

- Barracks replaces Cottage: whenever you would build a Cottage (1), build a Barracks instead.
- Barracks requires 3 Labourers (star icon) for Activation.
- Barracks provides 2 Housing units when activated.

- Barracks scores 5 RP only if active in a diagonal plot, and 0 RP if active in another location.

VICTORY CONDITIONS

- Achieve at least 80 Reputation Points.
- Score at least 4 Barracks.

VIII. Edge of the World

Your borders now reach the sea. Salty air, boats, and fresh fish fill your markets, if you can build the piscaries to support it and keep the heart of your fief free for commerce and craft.

SETUP

- No changes.

RULES

- Piscary replaces Windmill: whenever you would build a Windmill (4), build a Piscary instead.
- Piscary requires 2 Labourers (star icon) for Activation.
- Piscary scores 3 RP, and +1 RP per adjacent active Market.
- Piscator' Guild replaces the Windmillers' Guild.
- Piscator' Guild scores 15 RP if you have at least 1 active Piscary on each outer edge (top, bottom, left, and right). A corner Piscary counts for only one edge of your choice.

VICTORY CONDITIONS

- Achieve at least 80 Reputation Points.
- Score the Piscator' Guild (15 RP).
- Score all Piscaries with the +1 RP Market bonus.
